Details for the Scripture studies classes and Pilgrimage listed in the Calendar of Events:

- A. All are welcome to attend. Please bring your bible and note book & pen to participate more fully. Besides the teaching by Sister M. Beverly, there will be time for questions, discussion and prayer. These schedule events are free and open to the public. If you are a non-Catholic, you may be interested in what Catholics believe about the three persons of the Blessed Trinity. If you are Catholic, you will discover the Scriptural basis for our traditional beliefs and dogmas of the Church. The proposed schedule for summer classes will help determine whether or not an evening class is convenient for working people. As indicated above, the one evening class and next morning class each month are the same presentation.
- B. Nancy VanDyken, an iconographer from Bozeman, MT, will be presenting two classes on sacred icons during the Day of Pilgrimage on Friday, July 13. Nancy was commissioned to “write” the icon of the Theotokos for Mercy House, an image of Our Lady at prayer. The schedule for the day will include a morning and afternoon teaching with time afterwards for private prayer. Lunch will be provided. You may bring your own sack lunch, if you have dietary restrictions. Please do not bring commercially bottled water to Marymount Hermitage. Our Mesa well provides clean, tasty, pure, cold water from 505 ft. deep. There is none better! If you want something to drink with your meal other than water, coffee, hot or iced tea, you may bring your own beverage.

This event is free and open to the public. Free will donations are welcome, but not required. Come and bring a friend! Reservations are not required, but would be helpful for planning purposes. Call or email Sister M. Beverly at Marymount Hermitage before July 11, if possible.
