Private, solitary retreats or personal tours of Mercy House are available upon request.

Details for the Scripture studies classes:

All are welcome to attend. Please bring your bible and note book & pen to participate more fully. Besides the teaching by Sister M. Beverly, there will be time for questions, discussion and prayer. These scheduled events are free and open to the public. If you are non-Catholic, you may be interested in what Catholics believe about the three persons of the Blessed Trinity. If you are Catholic, you will discover the Scriptural basis for our traditional beliefs and dogmas of the Church. The proposed schedule for summer classes will help determine whether or not an evening class is convenient for working people. As indicated above, the evening class and next morning class each month are the same presentation.
